

I AM Not Impressed

By Hunter Hayes

You go from place to place just to save the day
Leaving your family alone and at bay
Without even the slightest knowledge of Me
The ONE who can really set them free
Meanwhile, you lead others from test to test
You need to know, I AM not impressed!

Here and there you fight the good fight
But leave your family without My might
A son, daughter too
With only a mother to do
While in your good work you rest
You need to know, I AM not impressed!

Fast and hard you run the race
Smile of success on your face
Your family bears not your fame
Heavily burdened and full of shame
While your victory pounds in your chest
You need to know, I AM not impressed!

Unheard notes you sang strong and proud
Your sons and daughters brash and loud
Their CREATOR not even a thought in your song
Children left with no knowledge of right or wrong
Yet you stand tall in all that nastiness
You need to know, I AM not impressed!

But then, you dropped everything in your quest for ME
Bowed down low and on your knee
Bringing your family to my throne
Begging forgiveness for every stone
In my Home you want to nest
You need to know, now I AM impressed!
