

James Kenneth Blaylock is 33 years young and has been writing poetry, songs and stories since 2000. He has been a Christian for most of his life. His hobbies are music, movies, stargazing and reading. He began writing after praying to God to give his life meaning. He now blesses us with his gift of prose in various forms. He has also written short stories as well as a book for children.